

Spring Newsletter 2018

You can tell it's Spring - it's snowing again!

What a great day to curl up with a book or a DVD - you don't even need to visit the Library - why not try checking-out movies, audio-books, e-books, comics and TV shows with your library card from Hoopla - just visit www.hoopladigital.com

Support Us and CLICK HERE to renew your Membership Subscription for 2018. Adult Membership only $10

How to write the BEST ever college essay.

Admissions officers have to read an enormous number of college essays, most of which are forgettable.

Join our workshop 7-9pm April 18, 2018 for hints, tips and motivation. Ideal for Junior Year students.

Presented by Helene Zablocki, English Teacher. Sign-up at the Library or register on 973-835-0482

Well done to all our Memoir Writers who turned out for Helene's previous workshop in January. We had over twenty people of all ages learning how to record and preserve their recollections for family and friends - or just for their personal enjoyment.

Need some gentle exercise to ease yourself into spring? Want to learn to move and stretch safely?

Why not sign-up to our six-week program hosted by expert Kathleen Leary. Starting April 30th 2018 at the Library (No class on Memorial Day, May 28).

Adult chair-yoga Mondays 2-3pm.
Children's-yoga sessions Mondays 3:45-4:30pm

Our Book Sale at the Library will be on Fri May 11th and Sat May 12th

Drop off your hardcover or paperback fiction and non-fiction books, children's books, books on tape, CD's, DVD's, and records in good condition.

(No magazines, textbooks, encyclopedia sets, or Reader's Digest condensed books please)

SPRING BOOK SALE

Historic Walking Tour Saturday May 12th

Join the Pompton Lakes Historical Commission - authors of the recent

Pompton Lakes Historic Guide

for a 1-2 hour walking tour of Pompton Lakes historic sites and buildings

Click HERE for further details

Join-in with our ONE BOOK, ONE TOWN reading event this summer.

Copies of Thunder Dog: the Story of a Blind Man and his Guide Dog and Keep Your Ear on the Ball, for younger readers are available for loan at the library now, or on Audio via Hoopla.

We'll be having readings, book discussions, poster making and other events across town throughout the summer, with a special event at the end on Saturday, September 8th, for a celebration of reading and community spirit.

Thank You to our Sponsors

Since our last Newsletter, the following businesses have supported their local Library

Soojian Brothers Construction	Northeast Janitorial Supply	Ferraioli, Wielkotz, Cerullo & Cuva, P.A.
----------------------------------	--------------------------------	--

Camptown Coin Store

Don't forget our weekly Mah Jongg sessions on Tuesday afternoons. Beginners welcome

Ready to sign-up for our Holiday House Tour in December 2012? Click Here for more details

We meet on the first Wednesday of every month. Have an idea? Come along and join in the planning or visit www.pomptonlakeslibrary.org/friends for more details

