Fall 2020 Newsletter

The long hot days of summer are over and the leaves are turning. Time to retreat inside with a book or a DVD from your library. Order it online, by email or by phone and pickup at the door. Or why not borrow directly on your tablet or e-reader view the catalog here?

Although many local activities remain on-hold, there is still plenty to keep your mind active and engaged. Why not join our online One Book, One Town discussion group, or the Library BookClub which now meets online on alternate Thursdays?

Better still, come and celebrate the season at the Annual Scarecrow Contest on the library lawn organized by the Pompton Lakes BID. WIN PRIZES!

Join Us for a Discussion of

Wednesday, October 14th, at 7pm
The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks

To attend the online discussion, just reply to this email or sign up with your contact information at this link.
