Winter 2021 Newsletter

Winter's cold breath outside makes for a great excuse to retreat inside to warm yourself with a good book or a DVD from your library. Order it online, by email or by phone and pickup at the door. Or why not borrow directly on your tablet or e-reader view the catalog here?

As we endure through continued lock-downs and socially distance from friends and family, connecting through phone and online is what keeps us all going. Why not join our online One Book, One Town discussion group, or the Library BookClub which now meets online on alternate Thursdays?

Stay tuned - we'll be announcing our pick soon for this year's selection for One Book One Town soon! We're proud to say this will be the fourth year we are bringing the community together with this reading event.

Don't forget, when you're shopping at Amazon, go to smile.amazon.com instead and they'll donate 0.5% of the value of your eligible purchases to the Friends of Pompton Lakes Library.
